

Telemarketing Executive (Fareham based)

Being an employee at M12 Solutions has many benefits:

- The freedom and confidence to grow
- Your contribution is valued and rewarded
- Teamwork and collaboration are supported
- Complete control of your personal development
- A vibrant working environment
- The opportunity to work with clients who have entrusted us with complex and cutting edge telecoms solutions

M12 solutions are seeking an experienced and successful telemarketing executive.

You will be required to deal with some inbound enquiries which are associated with our Wessex Internet enterprise and process new enquiries as well as forge new business contacts with SME organisations to generate new appointments for our growing sales team.

We are looking for someone who has ambition to develop professionally and take on more responsibility to nurture client relationships and to potentially move into sales.

You will be confident, able to speak clearly and with good persuasive skills to uncover new opportunities presenting M12 solutions as an ideal potential supplier. OTE is expected to be £25k year one with excellent prospects for more success as time passes.
